

Device description

Fiber optic cable junction box type AT-PGS is used as the passive part of the networks. Its design supports the IP 68 level of protection. Made and certified as the intrinsically safe device group I M1 can cross up to 48 fiber cores using 4 cassettes. AT-PGS can be equipped with cable glances for the cable entry as well as with the connector type ZAT/S.